SUBJECT: Falsification in the Workplace Training – Required

PURPOSE: The purpose of this memorandum is to advise of a new training on Falsification. The training is required for all child welfare professionals.

BACKGROUND: The department is pleased to announce that Falsification in the Workplace training is now available. This training is designed to educate employees about ethical conduct, falsification in the workplace, and the impact and consequences to the employee, children, families, and the department. This course analyzes real-life scenarios of employee misconduct and shares ways to prevent falsification in the workplace and provides resources and support to employees. The training should take 90 minutes to complete.

This course includes a Learner Guide designed for learners to analyze and reflect on the course content. Throughout the course, learners will be prompted to record responses to critical thinking questions and scenarios. Supervisors are encouraged to follow-up with employees during their one-on-one supervision to reflect on the course scenarios and ethical dilemmas presented.

ACTION REQUIRED: Please share this memorandum with all appropriate staff in the regions to include the child protective investigators, sheriff offices conducting child protective investigations, community-based care lead agencies, and case management organizations. DCF employees must complete via the PeopleFirst LMS; sheriff offices, CBC, and CMO employees must complete via the Center for Child Welfare website (please see attached flyer).

CONTACT INFORMATION: If you have questions regarding this training, please contact Filiz Aktan, Training Manager, at Filiz.Aktan@myflfamilies.com or 850-717-4672.
